

Services

We offer in house service on almost all of the equipment we sell. Our service department has a fast turn around time, and we will treat your equipment with the utmost attention, precision and care. AFI LLC provides quality, cost effective equipment for sandblast equipment. Our high caliber technical staff provides unparalleled inspection and refurbishment capabilities. Customers can expect top level service and responsiveness ensuring a comfortable buying experience. We have trained technicians on staff to provide you with the answers to your questions. If we don't have the answers, we will find them and get your equipment back in working condition in no time!

AFI understand sandblast machines AFI, is dedicated to providing the highest level of customer support possible by providing:

Rebuilds- Maintenance - Service Programs

- AFI services everything we sell
- New and pre-owned equipment
- Most other manufacturers' equipment
- AFI has a fully-equipped service shop
- AFI can provide work performed at your facility or ours

Preventive Maintenance Programs

- AFI can assure your equipment runs great for as long as you own it
- AFI can provide service for sandblast machines, vibratory & ultrasonic equipment
- AFI can work around your schedules. Our commitment to you is to provide superior service. We will work with you to ensure that you experience minimal downtime and maximum effectiveness.

We provide the following, time-based overhauls on assets. They are jobs that are scheduled at regular intervals either based on calendars--replace filters every 6 months, or based on readings--change filters every 5,000 operating hours.

At Abrasive Finishing Industries.,LLC, our commitment to you is impeccable customer service. To meet your specific requirements, we offer a broad range of programs designed to reduce your overall operating costs, improve productivity, manage inventory, enhance delivery and address safety and environmental issues. For value-added services that generate value-added solutions, team up with AFI, the leader in surface finishing industry. Our service department is ready to help you with preventive maintenance, warranty repairs or general service repairs using factory parts from our extensive inventory. Contact AFI today.